Half dollars, quarters and dimes of a new design have been put in circulation, all of which are considered more artistic than the old ones. The new 50-cent piece bears on one side the figure of the Goddess of Liberty, holding a bunch of olive branches, with a spread eagle on the opposite side; the new quarter has the figure of a woman coming through a gate in a wall and on the reverse side an eagle in flight. On one side of the new dime is the head of a woman and on the other a bundle of Roman fasces tied tightly together and an axe nearby. The new dime is of a sharper cut than the old. It is about a month since the mints of Philadelphia, Denver and San Francisco began turning out the new coins.

One on the American.

A native-born American, member of a party of four business men who often lunched together, took great delight in joking the others on their foreign birth. "It's all very well for you fellows to talk about what we need in this counbry," he said, "but when you come to think of it you're really only intruders. Not one of you was born here. You're welcome to this country, of course, but you really oughtn't to forget what you owe us natives who open our doors to

"Maybe." said an Irishman in the party, thoughtfully. Maybe. But there's one thing you seem to forget; I came into this country wid me fare paid an' me clothes on me back. Can you say the same?"

BURMA'S OLDEST TEMPLE.

This Towering Pile Looks as Though

It Were Built of Gold. Rurma's oldest and most famous temple, Shwe Dagon Paya, is one of the sights of Rangoon. The temple stands on a mound which was appreached by four flights of steps, one at each point of the compass, but the southern side is the principal entrance, at 1 o'clock sharp in the afternoon, the and at the foot of these steps are two great leogryphs covered with white plaster. The western entrance has been closed by the fortifications which were built by the English during the Burmese wars.

At the top of the stairs is a broad rises the paya. This is of brick covered with gold, studded in places with jewels, and it is surmounted by a gilded "hti" or umbrella, from which hang quantities of gold and silver bells which tinkle continually in the breeze. The pile is about 370 feet in height. and it gives the effect of being made of solid gold. The shape is also very graceful, and seen against a background of deep blue sky is almost dazzling in its beauty. At the base of the structure and round the edge of the platform are numerous shrines and chapels, and in every direction there are bells of all sizes, each with deer's antiers beside it, with which the worshiper strikes it as he passes. The platform of the pagoda presents an animated scene. Numbers of Burmans in their picturesque and brightly colored garments throng it continually, C. F. SMITH, Auctioneer. sands can assemble there without any impression of overcrowding.-Exchange.

SWEPT AWAY THE MOORS.

Grimaldi Saved Monaco and Was Made Ruler of the Tiny Land.

Did you ever hear of the most distinguished of the Grimaldi family, not the Genoese general who remained at home and fought for his own country, nor yet the artist who did heroic stunts on canvas, nor the sixteenth century Grimaldi who died by the hand of an assassin in the palace at Monaco, but the tenth century ancestor of that prince who saved Monaco from the Moors? His was an achievement worthy of a true soldier of fortune. The tiny principality, perched on its seagirt cliff had been settled by the Greeks even before Athens became the greatest city of the civilized world. It was one of the cultural outposts of Rome, and in the fifth century it was an important center of Christianity.

Then the Moors crossed the Mediter ranean, extended their sway over Spain and seized the ancient Heculis Monoeci Portus and gave over its churches and monasteries to the infidels. For 200 years they defied the soldiers of Europe, and then Grimaldi came. There had been many wars in Genoa, and here was a chance for a Genoese captain When his military genius had driven the Moors into the sea, he was rewarded by being made absolute monarch of a country fifty-three miles in circumference.-St. Louis Globe-Demo-

NO. 301 is a nice home on the carline between Barre and Montpelier: large lot 100x215, with shade trees: nice 6-foom nouse finished in oak stain with some hardwood floors; bath, nice fireplace, hot and cold water, spring water and electric lights; pierras on 2 sides of the house; this house was only built 3 years ago;
here is one of the homes where anyone wishing for comfort and who would like to live
just out the city and have a nice lot of land and be able to keep chickens, etc., would more than enjoy; I am ready to show it to you at any time, for it is a bargain at the price that we can sell it at.

NO. 302 is another nice proposition for a home or an investment; this is a 2-tenement house, centrally located, with a lot 80x100, with 24 nice shade trees; house is divided so that there are 9 rooms on one side and 8 rooms on the other, with all modern improvements, electric lights, gas, furnace heat, nicely finished inside, anyone locking for an investment had better look this up, for you could live in one side and rent the other. It is now rented to first-class people and for good large rent.

NO. $03 is another good proposition, which you do not find very often for sale; a small farm of 45 acres, only 36 mile from a hustling railroad town and near Barre City; this farm is nicely divided into tillage, pasture and woodland; land lars fine; nice shade trees all along the roadside; 2 good fruit orchards; good 8-room house in very good repair; this place if well cared for would keep from 8 to 10 cows; if you are looking for a small farm, let me show you this one.

NO. 304 is a very good 1-man farm of 130 acres, some little distance from Barre but near a good village; nice tutomobile roads; very productive soil for all kinds of crops; plenty of wood and lumber with this farm; you get 9 cows, bull, number of calves, 1 horse; there is a nice set of farming tools, hand tools of all kinds, gasoline engine and saws, poultry and fiens, and firewood all fitted for the stove for a year or more; this is one that you seldom find with such good buildings and location and equipment at such a low price as only $2,500.
